

SMITH BACK—
 HEPWORTH IN LEEDS TEAM

By Trevor Watson

Test winger Alan Smith plays his first game for 11 weeks against Halifax at Headingley tomorrow (3.0) to give Leeds a full-strength threequarter line of Smith, Hynes, Dyl and Atkinson for the first time this season.

In fact, it is a much healthier looking Leeds side than was expected. Scrum-half Keith Hepworth will play with his bruised hand strapped, partnered by Tony Wainwright, who replaces injured Alan Hardisty. Up front, David Ward returns as hooker, Steve To...
