

with youth

INCREASED communication with youth was urged by the president of Rotary International in Great Britain and Ireland, yesterday.

Speaking to the luncheon of Leeds Rotary Club at the Griffin Hotel, Mr. Howard Ensor, stressed the value of Rotary Foundation—an educational trust for sending students overseas—saying that if they did not do anything else the Foundation had justified its existence.

Through this Rotarians were looking after these students and it was important that conduct should be made with the young.

The latest was rejected yesterday. Bradford Northern's hooker, Peter Walker, who discuss his future. Wallis said yesterday: "I do not want people to think I am squealing, but I am very surprised because I think I have been playing well." Huddersfield's top points scorer, second row forward, Frank Davies, returns to the team for the match at Hull KR tomorrow after recovering from a rib injury. Three changes are made to the side which was beaten last weekend at Barrow. Eddie McDonagh takes over on the left wing from Ken Senior and in the pack David Wild and Graham Naylor drop out making way for Davies and Dave Heppleston.

York have failed in their third attempt to sign Ted Barnard, the Leeds forward, who lives in York. Leeds from the junior club, Heworth, and have made offers twice in the last meeting with the board to

There are many attractive fixtures today and tomorrow, notably at Leeds, where the home team, for the first time this season, will have a full-strength three-quarter line. The opponents at Headingley, Halifax, will select from 15 players just before the kick-off. Hull Kingston Rovers's second row forward, Wallis, upset at being dropped for tomorrow's game at Huddersfield is to seek a

RUGBY LEAGUE clubs take a chance, as Castleford found last night, when they switch fixtures from Saturday to Friday in order to attract more spectators. Fog prevented the match at Castleford against Hull team for the match at Hull will have to be arranged, taking place and a new date. In mid-afternoon clubs have a much better chance of beating the fog than at night.

POST SPORTS STAFF

A full-strength Leeds attack awaits Halifax

1971

1591